What is Going On Tonight.
Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks No. 1311 meets.

Mitchell Laramie, tree warden of the town of Windham died at St. Joseph's hospital Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, following injuries received while engaged in cutting down a large limb on an Elm tree in front of No. 53 Meadow Lane. The limb on which Mr. Laramie was working, when cut through, broke off and swinging around changed the swing of the axe Mr. Laramie was using, the result being that it nearly severed his right leg about half way between the knee and the groin, cutting completely through the artery in that part of the leg. Louis Cote of No. 20 Windham street, who was near by saw Mr. Laramie as he fell to the ground and running up to him asked if he had injured himself, and the reply was "Yes, Louis, I cut myself with the axe." Laramie then grew weak and Cote carried him to the house and sent for medical assistance. Dr. J. A. Girouard and Dr. C. A. Jenkins were soon on the scene and word was sent to St. Mary's rectory, brought Rev. E. A. Mathieu and Rev. Arthur J. Routhier. As the injured man was in bad shape he was rushed to the hospital immediately and placed on the operating table, but it was too late to save him and loss of blood caused his death. The doctors attending Laramie saw that he had little chance but Laramie was given a morphine and said, "Boy, I know it's tough luck but I'm not going to die." Dr. F. E. Wilcox, medical examiner visited the scene of the accident and after hearing the story of witnesses announced death due to an accident.

Witnesses of the accident stated that the limb on which Mr. Laramie stood projected well across the street and prior to cutting it down rope and tackle had been set for lowering it to the ground. The limb which was to be cut off close to the trunk of the tree broke without warning and Mr. Laramie who had been standing about eighteen inches from the trunk, falling to the limb and rope above, was thrown against the tree, causing the axe to strike him. Following the blow he fell to the ground by the rope and fell headlong onto the sidewalk, where he was found dead. The accident it is thought would not have occurred had Mr. Laramie's attention not been attracted to keeping his hands away from the rope and stopping traffic from passing underneath.

With the death of Mr. Laramie Willimantic loses one of its best known citizens. He was kind hearted and a good friend.

Several people from here spent the day last Friday at Ocean Beach.

COLCHESTER
Sunday evening in the Chautauqua tent at 8 o'clock a community service was held.

The tent was well filled, a large number coming from nearby towns. The program for the evening was selections by the Old Guard band, followed by songs by the Liberty chorus. After the musical part was over Dr. Frederick Poole gave a very interesting lecture on China of the Past.

Dr. Poole was very well received and his lecture was one of the best ever heard here.

Charles H. Strong was a caller here on Sunday.

Miss Loretta Perry is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. M. Klein, on Broadway.

Miss Emmeline Ransom was a recent visitor in Hartford.

Charles Clark of Marlboro was a week end caller here.

Henry J. Bailey was the guest of friends in Norwich Monday.

The ball game on the park Saturday afternoon was attended by the largest crowd of the season.

The game was between the Roadmen's team and the Colchester team. This was the second game of the series and both teams were on their mettle.

The Colchester team won out by the score of 6 to 4. McDonald, Luzzini and Clark were the battery for the locals and Chafetz and Rison for the Roadmen.

Both pitchers did good work in a very satisfactory manner. The Colchester team won the game, having won both games.

A number of fans went to Norwich Sunday afternoon to attend the K. of C. and Wallingford game. They went down in a large truck.

THOMPSON
Miss Mary E. Chase spent the week end in Worcester.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Amidon and son Gilbert were in Westford Sunday.

John Ballard of Philadelphia has been visiting friends in town.

Mr. Edwards of Danielson supplied Brandy Hill pulpit last Sunday.

For some years he has been working on two inventions, one of which is a part of a machine. As far as known, he is the first living member of the Nehant tribe of Indians that were early settlers of Nehantic, as Niantic was then called.

Miss Fannie C. Allen of Stoneham, Mass., was the speaker and message bearer on Sunday at the Ladies' Aid building, Pine Grove.

She drew a large audience at both services to hear her. She gave a number of fine tests to those in the audience. It is not yet decided who will be the speaker on Sunday next, but the society have done good work to date.

Mr. and Mrs. James Metcalf, at Riverview Manor farm, where she will remain for several days, caring for her mother, who is quite seriously ill.

Metcalf is slightly better and able to sit up a few times daily.

Mrs. A. F. Getchell of East Main street, with her sisters, celebrated their birthday on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Getchell. The event was a most pleasant one for them.

Rev. J. J. McCook of Hartford, assisted by his son-in-law, Bishop Roots, of Hangchow, China, were in charge of the services at St. John's Episcopal chapel on Sunday.

Bishop Roots recently attended the conference at Geneva and is on his way back to his mission when he stopped off here to see Rev. Mr. McCook and family at their summer home at McCook's Point.

The pastor, Rev. W. E. Powell, gave a very interesting talk to them. They were assisted by Miss Porter of Hartford, who is spending the summer at Point of Woods beach. She has a fine voice and her husband was much appreciated. She is a member of the choir of the First Baptist church in Hartford.

The masquerade dance given Saturday evening in the Pine Grove pavilion was a huge success, according to many reports in circulation since the event. The costumes were many and varied and were pleasing. The attendance was about 600.

The affair was a success in every way. The dances this season at the Pine Grove pavilion have been under the successful management of W. E. Dougherty of New Britain. He is well pleased with Pine Grove and the colony here and he anticipates coming again another season.

Dean Miner and a party of friends from New Britain are camping out for two weeks on the Griswold lot at the Grove. Victor Dornier and Ralph Shelgrave, who were at the camp for two weeks, have returned to their homes in the above city. The young men are thinking of coming again next season.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hogan of Bridgeport were over Sunday guests of Mrs. Amelia Belknap at Pine Grove.

Corp. Clifford P. Rogers of U. S. General hospital, No. 4, Staten Island, N. Y., recently was home to visit his family on West Main street. He had a five-day furlough.

Fred Saunders of Bridgeport spent the week end with his parents at their home in West Main street.

Mrs. Marion E. Davis, Mr. Harriet Tyler, Mr. W. E. Egan and Mrs. John Mason motored to Lyme last Friday in the former's car to attend the Lyme art exhibit.

Miss Lina Harding of Grassy Hill spent the week end with her aunt, Mrs. Lucy Gleason, of Washington avenue.

DAVID BEACH HAS PLAN FOR WORLD'S FINANCES

David S. Beach of Bridgeport, who announces himself as a candidate in the coming election for president of the United States, came here Tuesday and for two hours he wants to meet people to explain to them his world finance scheme. Mr. Beach has worked out a plan which he says will pay the taxes, fire, life and accident insurance for the individual and will be an incalculable boon to taxpayers. He is also the inventor of an automobile wheel that will use wood instead of rubber and although he has received no party nomination for president, he says his election will be simple enough if voters will but scratch the other candidates and write his name on the ticket.
